OVERVIEW

“Lest We Forget” (LWF) Black Holocaust collection provides an opportunity to examine aspects of the African Slave Trade, the artifacts speak for themselves and bring history alive. The extraordinary LWF objects sheds light on a significant period in American history and provides an appreciation for the enduring strength and spirit of African Americans and the contributions their ancestors made in the building of America.

ABOUT US

J. Justin and Gwen Ragsdale, a husband-and-wife team, established LWF Museum in 2002. They co-facilitate riveting and lively presentations, interspersed with little known history facts that leave their audiences wanting for more.

Mr. Ragsdale, President and Chief Curator, acquired the rare collection over several decades and garnered a wealth of knowledge about this historic period. Mrs. Ragsdale, Vice President of Operations, is a trained public speaker and also researches and writes the many descriptive contextual panels that accompany the relics. Their documentary film productions have won several prestigious awards and have been featured in numerous articles and major publications.

EXHIBITS & PRESENTATIONS

Authentic exhibits and informative presentations are included in both guided Museum Tours and Traveling Exhibits. The programs are geared to meet different levels of understanding of slavery, suitable for all ages and ethnic groups. Presentations end with questions & answers. Discussions about tolerance of differences and race relations is encouraged.

LEST WE FORGET AWARD WINNING DOCUMENTARY FILMS

- Lest We Forget - A Review of American Slavery From “Capture to Emancipation”
  Martha’s Vineyard & HBO Film Festivals
  “Best Documentary Award”
- My Slave Sister, Myself - A Gripping Documentary that provides a correlation between Past and Current Events
  New York & Toronto Film Festivals
  “Best Documentary Award”

MISSION STATEMENT:
We utilize our thought-provoking collection to increase awareness of the impact of the Trans-Atlantic slave trade

VISION STATEMENT:
“Our dream is for every child to channel the strength and perseverance of our ancestors and exemplify the legacy of our greatness”

APPOINTMENTS REQUIRED FOR MUSEUM TOURS!

CONTACT: J. Justin & Gwen Ragsdale
215-205-4324 or 215-397-6060
E-Mail: lestweforgetmuseum@yahoo.com
LWF Films, “Little Known History” Booklet & Other Products Available for Purchase at Museum & Website

VISIT OUR WEBSITE
FOR MORE INFORMATION
www.lestweforgetmuseumofslavery.com

An extensive collection of artifacts that reveals the history of the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade

3650 Richmond St.
Philadelphia, PA 19134

Museum Hours: 10 A.M. - 6:00 P.M.
Admission: $10 Per Person
Appointments Required!

CONTACT
J. Justin & Gwen Ragsdale
(215) 205-4324 or (215) 397-6060
Email: lestweforgetmuseum@yahoo.com
*Traveling Exhibit Fees Vary, Call for Quote
Visit Our Website For More Information lestweforgetmuseumofslavery.com

- A Remembered Past
- A Thoughtful Present
- A Determined Future
“Lest We Forget” (LWF) Black Holocaust Slavery Museum and Traveling Exhibit contains an extensive array of Slave Artifacts from the private collection of J. Justin & Gwen Ragsdale. The ability to view and touch actual objects of enslavement “truly brings history alive.” Compelling exhibits and descriptive contextual panels educate and heighten awareness. Informative presentations interspersed with little known history facts and LWF award winning documentary films are included in both Guided Museum Tours and Traveling Exhibits. LWF Films available for purchase at museum and LWF website.

Schedule A Museum Tour Or *Traveling Exhibit - APPOINTMENTS REQUIRED

CONTACT: J. Justin & Gwen Ragsdale
(215) 205-4324 or (215) 397-6060
E-Mail: lestweforgetmuseum@yahoo.com

*Museum Hours: 10:00 A.M – 6:00 P.M. – ADMISSION: $10 PER PERSON

We Exhibit at Schools, Churches, Black History, Diversity, Juneteenth Programs, Family Reunions, Conferences, Community, Social Events, Etc.

*TRAVELING EXHIBIT FEES VARY, CALL FOR A QUOTE

LEST WE FORGET BLACK HOLOCAUST SLAVERY MUSEUM IS A 501c{3} ORGANIZATION
DONATIONS ARE GREATLY APPRECIATED

Memberships Available - Visit Our Website For More Information:
www.lestweforgetmuseumofslavery.com